She must be if she is committed to this asylum, mustn t she? It is 1888, and Celia is locked away in the Northern Michigan Asylum. Far away from the life she had known before, with only her own doubts to her sanity, and the kindness of a few new acquaintances to guide her. Does she belong here, shut away from the world? Or is she being hidden for a nefarious purpose? In 2011, Eve stumbles upon some strange objects at the bookshop she works in, located in the creepy old asylum. The more she learns about these forgotten possessions, the more she is drawn to the woman who owned them, and the mystery of her life. But will the trail into the past lead Eve anywhere worth going? Or is she fated to the same despair as the woman who left them behind? Forget Me Not Blue is a tale of love, madness, the ghosts that follow us, and the possibilities awaiting.
