Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Writing in Lausanne, Charles Dickens composed a long letter to his children setting out his belief in the gospel stories of Jesus. In his own words - as he put it. This musical takes that theme and has Charles Dickens telling his children himself through songs and dances and reading from his own letter. A dozen or so characters including the wonderfully Dickensian Mr. Blenkinsop, the butler, the in house little theatre that had been created where they lived, a small musical group for the thoroughly contemporary music which includes song titles The Locust and the Camel An Amazing Man If I can but believe Could have been (a hipp hipp-potamus) Five Small Barley Loaves and many others.15 songs in all. Read and enjoy, go one better and put on a production!.
