All his riches were a team of oxen for his plough, and another for his cart. One day as he was working in the sield an eagle came, and rested upon his yoke, and Continued there till the evening. Gordius astonished at this prodigy, consulted the Soothfayers; when a maid adviied him to facrisice to Jupiter in the quality of a King, which he did, and then married her. The Phrygians had been told by the Oracle, that they must choofe him for a King, whom theymet upon a cart, m consequence of which they elected Gordius l and Mkias, is son, out of gratitude offered his sather s M cart cart to Jupiter. It is faid that the knot, by which he fastened the yoke to the beam, was made with so much art; that they could not discover the endsof it. The empire of Asia was promised to him that should untie it, which Alexander the Great, after several attempts, could not do; and, therefore, he cut in two with his sword. This is commonly called the Gordian knot, because the cart was in Gordium, a city of Phrygia, and it was Gordius that made it. uintus Curtius. Zenophon.
