

The Challenge of the Actor: Freeing the Actor Within (Paperback)

By Eric Stone

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Acting is a tool for freedom of expression and choice, a mirror of possibility for humankind. Acting is a powerful medium for reflecting authenticity in the human experience. Hollywood Actors Studio is dedicated to providing excellent and distinct training and to promoting the actor as artist in the community. The Studio is a safe, fun and supportive environment for artistic discoveries and personal growth. We train people in revealing their true talents and realizing their potential. Our purpose is to offer top-notch acting, self-expression and public speaking training programs to enhance communication and liberate the individual s creativity and expression. We deliver clear distinctions via tools and techniques, which bring lasting advancements in artistic expression, growth and development, personal effectiveness and passionate communication. In this book, you will find distinctions in the craft of acting which aim at giving acting a context as an art form that can be learned and practiced, not a vague talent that some people are born with and others not. This manual is designed to facilitate your understanding, study and pursuit of acting as a craft. You will...
