Excerpt: . . . 11 nounced 30 million in grants to create 70 new and expanded health centers. This is a vehicle to extend health care service for people without health insurance. For fiscal year 2003 our department proposes to increase its funding of Community Health Centers to a level of 1.5 billion, a 114 million increase above the current years appropriation and 290 million above the funding level of the last 2 years. This funding will add 1,200 new and expanded health center sites over a five-year period and increase the number of patients treated from 11 million to 16 million. In terms of bilingual and bicultural services, Health and Human Services continues to support principal demonstration grants through the Office of Minority Health's Bilingual Bicultural Service programs in communities to improve Minority Health Grant Programs. Both of these programs support the development of strategies geared at...

A very wonderful book with lucid and perfect answers. It is probably the most incredible book I have studied. It has been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly just after I finished reading through this publication by which in fact transformed me, altered the way in my opinion.
