Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Outline of New Testament Christology: A Study of Genetic Relationships Within the Christology of the New Testament Period; A Dissertation Submitted to the Faculty of the Graduate Divinity School in Candidacy for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy This study surveys the entire period of the New Testament history and literature, ca. 28 - 160 A. D., and includes the other extant Christian writings of these years that lie outside of the New Testament canon. The effort is to present types of Christology within the New Testament period in such a way that they will stand out with their distinctive features and in their proper relationships, and to denote the character and sources of the conception of Christ in writings not so fully christological. It is not proposed to give an exhaustive study of the several types. Important questions are left unanswered, or the answer is only vaguely hinted at; for example, the character and extent of some of the non-Jewish influences. The study is offered as a contribution to the understanding of the Christology...
