From the writer of The Rune House: A dig at an old house to try and date it seems routine enough for Pip, her friend Nick, and the other student archaeologists when they are sent to Cold Hunger Farm, out in the west of Worcestershire. Yet from the start something isn't right. First a Roman find hints at a very murky cult, but worse, brings up events from Pip's past she thought she'd got over. Where did Natalie Walker, the other woman in Pip's ex-fiance's life, get to when she disappeared from a nearby dig four years ago? For Harry, Amy is the girl he always wanted, and as time goes by and Edward cares less and less for Amy, Harry finds himself picking up the pieces. But when he returns...
