Ingersoll I am constrained to put into book form a correspondence which I had with my friend Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll some years ago, because I am constantly asked for copies of it, and also because it affords me the opportunity (thanks to Major General Sickles and Mr. Munsell) of adding some evidence confirming my estimate of Mr. Lincoln s religious views, which I had culled not only from the record, but from an intimate acquaintance with him in Washington, in the army hospitals, and at the front during the days immediately preceding General Lee s surrender and Mr. Lincoln s untimely taking off.
