Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It would seem to me that our problem as believers is not whether we believe in prayer or know the value of prayer. I am convinced that our problem is in knowing how to pray and obtain results. To solve this problem, many theories and approaches abound and are daily being invented. It seems to me that there is quite a lot of deception about prayer today as there is about other key elements of the Christian faith. The theories and approaches being advocated have not been seen to work. Believers roam from one place to another in search for solutions to their needs and problems. Many have found themselves victims in the hands of self-made apostles and prophets and prophetesses who promised them deliverance that never came. Some have even been led out of the faith in search for solutions to their problems. Our problems are even compounded by the prevalence of ineffective solutions. But we can indeed pray and obtain results. Personally, I am not surprised that prevailing solutions have not been seen to work. A number of reasons can be suggested why this is the case. Many so-called instruments today seek after their self-glory than that of Jesus Christ. Some even arrogate to themselves titles that either make them equal with God or greater than him. The attention they draw is primarily to themselves instead of to Jesus Christ. When people who claim to be instruments in God s hands as well as his servants indulge in such blatant arrogance, sometimes I wonder what makes them different from Satan himself. In addition, when we stop to examine present day theories and approaches, we find them at variance with Scripture....
