Excerpt from A Letter to the Members of Lincoln College, Oxford, on Certain Proposed Changes in Their College By Section 32 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 it is provided that the Commissioners appointed under that Act shall, in the case of any College in Oxford, give notice of any changes that they propose to make in the Statutes of the College, to the Visitor of the College which will be affected by such changes. By the courtesy of the Oxford University Commissioners I have received a preliminary intimation, at an earlier date than the Act requires, and with a View of preparing me for the consideration of the official notice which I may expect to receive hereafter, under the provisions of that Section.
